Swansea Marina Summer Trail

The Post House was once the home of the local Evening Post, and it even got printed here, through the night.

Morgans Hotel was once the home of The Harbour Trust where captains would register their ships which is why their rooms are named after ships that sailed here

01

As you look up to Morgans Hotel, what flag is flying today?

.....

02

Just outside the reception side door, there is a sign in the wall about the Harbour Trust, What year was the foundation stone laid?

.....

03

Look over the road to the blue building: Georgian 5 star accommodation, how many windows are there?

.....

 Now turn right and walk towards the Dylan Thomas Centre, stop as you approach the building...

04

What is the first animal you see above the fire exit?

.....

05

Walk to the front of the centre, look up, what is the Welsh word for centre?

.....

NB: There are usually lots of summer activities here

06

Who designed the globe at the front of the building?

 Head to your right, along East Burrows Road, towards the Marina...

 Continue to the end of the road, BE CAREFUL of the ROADS HERE

 Cross the road heading to your right, towards the statue.

07

There are red doors on the building to your right, what is the name hanging above the door?

.....

08

As you see Pockets Wharf ahead, what is the name of the building on your left?

.....

09

This is a water tower, what is it called and what year was it unveiled?

.....

HANDY TIP: Lovely food served here daily, and regular Events

Now walk towards the pumphouse...

10

How many black lampposts do you pass to get to the pumphouse carpark?

.....

Now head towards the bridge but stop before crossing, turn around and look at the wall with a plaque that says 'Pumphouse Quay'

11

What is in the picture?

Now cross the bridge and look ahead to the statue straight in front of you

12

Stop at the statue on your left, what's the name of the character/statue?

Now head right along the marina path, Dawsons CLC should be on your left as you walk past, look over the water to the red brick National Waterfront Museum...

13

Whats the number on the side of the building (closest to the tram shed)*it could be hidden behind the trees, so keep walking around the path..

Follow the path around the marina towards the statue...

14

What's your favourite name of the boats in the marina today?

DOUBLE QUESTION BONUS

15

Just before the statue what is the name of the building? on the plaque by the red door how many birds are there?

.....

16

Look up at the statue of John Henry Vivian , how many parliaments did he serve in?

.....

The Pump House, constructed around 1900, originally housed large boilers that supplied steam to hydraulic pumps. These pumps powered essential dock machinery, including a swing bridge that rotated to allow ships to enter or leave the South Dock.

Here why not take a stop and visit the National Waterfront Museum or the Swansea Museum both have free entry and toilet facilities!

Turn to the right, there is a circle plaque on the wall

17

Who named Ferrara Square?

Did you know the observatory once hosted the largest telescope in Wales

Turn around so the statue is behind you and now walk through the archway away from the Marina (CAREFUL OF THE BUSY ROAD CROSSING AT THE PILLARS), go left, then right into Slipway Road, head towards the beach, careful of the car park entrance.

18

On the Welcome To Swansea Bay poster on the railings just by The Observatory, tell us an animal shown that you can find in the bay?

Keeping to the coastal path, look up to the observatory

19

How many balls are on the lady's hoops on the roof?

.....

Continue along the prom

20

Stop at the rock statue of the Mermaid, who was it made by?
